ITINERARY

Day 1: Tokyo Arrival

Welcome to Tokyo – Japan!

Upon arrival into Tokyo, you will meet our tour guide and transfer to the hotel for check in.

Take the evening to relax after your flight and prepare for your first full day of the next day.

Meals: On-flight meals

Accommodation: Sunshine City Prince Hotel 3* or Similar

Please note:

- Customers buying land only do not include airport transfer fees. Please arrange your own airport transfer to the hotel
- Please be aware that you will need to have the same flight time with the group. Otherwise, you will have to arrange your own transfer from airport to the hotel

Arrival & Check-in information:

- Haneda International Airport (HND): The easiest and most convenient way to travel from Haneda International Airport (HND) to Tokyo Central is by train or by Monorail. The airport is also serviced by many Limousine Bus services which offer shared shuttle bus service from around 1300 Yen per person. (Please note that the bus stops only at designated locations)

● Narita International Airport (NRT): The best way to travel from Narita International Airport to Tokyo Central is by the Narita Airport Express. The journey to most Tokyo stations takes approximately 1hr and the ticket costs 4070 Yen. The airport is also serviced by many Limousine Bus services which offer shared shuttle buses from around 1300 Yen per person.

● Hotel Check-in: Travelers will be arriving at various times throughout the day. If arriving prior to standard check-in time, which is generally 3pm local time, you are welcome to leave your luggage with hotel reception and explore your surroundings until check-in becomes available, as There are no scheduled activities on Day 1 of the itinerary. The hotel may grant early check-in, however this is strictly subject to availability and at the hotels discretion.

Day 2: Tokyo - Sightseeing

After breakfast, you will have a full day explore Tokyo's highlights such as: the Tsukiji Outer Market, a shopping district adjacent to the enormous former wholesale fish market. It is a dream for foodies. This lively area is home to everything food-related – fresh ingredients, street food vendors, kitchen utensils. You will find great sushi and other restaurants around here, too. You will see a beautiful public park that has served many purposes over the centuries. It was originally built as a feudal lord's Tokyo residence and duck hunting grounds during the Edo period, but later served as a strolling garden and an imperial detached palace, before eventually being opened to the public in its current form.

Meals: Breakfast

Accommodation: Sunshine City Prince Hotel 3* or Similar

Day 3: Tokyo

You will enjoy a breakfast at your hotel and then enjoy the serenity of Ueno Park, the city's largest green space and home to numerous temples and museums. There's even a zoo here. More than 800 cherry blossom trees line the wide central path.

In the heart of the quirky Harajuku district, we will stop at Yoyogi Park. You will then visit nearby Meiji Shrine (Meiji Jingu), located within a 170-acre forest in the center of Tokyo. Constructed of cypress wood and copper, the shrine commemorates Emperor Meiji, who presided over Japan's industrial revolution in the second half of the 19th century. Late afternoon, we drive you back to the hotel and overnight in Tokyo.

Meals: Breakfast

Accommodation: Sunshine City Prince Hotel 3* or Similar

Day 4: Tokyo - Mt. Fuji - Yamanashi

After breakfast, you will check out your hotel in Tokyo and spend two-hour driving to Kawaguchiko. Lake Kawaguchiko is the most accessible of the Fuji Five lakes; popular sightseeing spots each offering an astonishing view of dramatic, iconic Mount Fuji. If travelling in March/April, this is a Sakura season and this is a great place to get back to nature. Here you will visit Mt Fuji 5th station to hopefully view the divine mountain before visiting Oishi Park on the north side of the lake. Seeing Japan's most famous mountain in the background really is an experience.

This lake is also home to a cherry blossom festival held during the season, one of the most popular in the country.

Meals: Breakfast

Accommodation: Fuji Kawaguchiko Resort Hotel 4* or Similar

Day 5: Yamanashi - Takayama

Today, you will continue heading to the traditional city of Takayama, still home to many Edo-period buildings. You will explore the Matsumoto Castle, also known as "Crow Castle" due to its dramatic black exterior. For a taste of authentic, old Japan, we'll enjoy a tour of Takayama old town, nestled in the Hida mountains. This city still retains a traditional feel, especially in its beautifully preserved old town. Here you will find quaint, old latticed wooden buildings and Sannomachi Street, with pretty homes, restaurants and sake breweries. You will see the Takayama Jin'ya, the former government headquarters under the Tokugawa Shogunate from 1692-1871. Afterwards you will continue to our traditional onsen hotel deep in the stunning Japanese alps.

Meals: Breakfast

Accommodation: Hoshokaku Hotel 3* or Similar

Day 6: Takayama - Shirakawa-go - Kyoto

After breakfast, you will travel to Shirakawa-go village, a UNESCO World Heritage Site that has more than 100

'Gassho-style' houses, which feature steeply-pitched roofs. Built many hundreds of years ago, these historic houses stand together in a beautiful natural setting. Enjoy exploring this unique village with its thatched-roof houses sitting among gorgeous mountain scenery. Following this, you will transfer to Kyoto where the afternoon is at leisure to enjoy this UNESCO delight.

Meals: Breakfast

Accommodation: Hotel Elcient Kyoto 3* or Similar

Day 7: Kyoto

Today, you will have a chance to walk along the Philosopher's Path, running alongside the Lake Biwa Canal. It is perfect for a slow stroll under the fragrant blossoms in March/April. Heian Jingu Shrine is a relatively young sacred location – built in 1895 – but this Shinto shrine is very impressive, with its enormous torii (sacred gate) standing almost 25 meters high. The garden behind the main hall – a shining example of Meiji-era Garden design – is home to several weeping cherry trees. Visit Kinkaku-ji Temple, otherwise known as the Golden Pavilion. This is a Zen temple and a UNESCO World Heritage Site with two floors covered entirely in thin layers of pure gold. The site is set within a beautiful classical Zen Garden. The detailed architecture of Kinkaku-ji incorporates three distinct architectural styles – Shinden, Samurai, and Zen. Late afternoon, return to your hotel and overnight in Kyoto.

Meals: Breakfast

Accommodation: Hotel Elcient Kyoto 3* or Similar

Day 8: Kyoto - Nara - Osaka

After breakfast, you will leave for Nara This morning, we traveled the short distance to Nara. This city has significant temples and artwork dating to the 8th century, when it was Japan's capital. You will Tōdai-ji (Great Eastern Temple), famed for its Great Buddha Hall, which remains one of the largest wooden buildings in the world. This impressive building houses a 15m-tall bronze statue of the Buddha Vairocana. Following this you will wander through gorgeous Nara Park, where more than 1200 tame sika deer roam freely. Following our tour, you will depart Nara and head to Osaka, a vibrant tourist destination renowned for its food culture. Check in your hotel and overnight in Osaka.

Meals: Breakfast

Accommodation: Sheraton Miyako Osaka 4* or Similar

Day 9: Osaka - Himeji - Hiroshima

Today your main luggage will remain at the hotel in Osaka to meet you upon your return in two day time. Please ensure you have an overnight bag packed for your two evenings in Hiroshima. After breakfast, you will depart Osaka to visit the so-called 'White Heron Castle', Himeji – it's the largest surviving example of a traditional Japanese castle. Comprising 83 buildings, the white roof of this UNESCO World Heritage-listed complex is said to evoke the wings of a heron taking flight, hence the popular name Shirasagi-jō (White Heron Castle). This is the most visited castle in Japan and the site offers some wonderful views of surrounding Himeji city. From here, you will continue on to Kurashiki, a city on Japan's Seto Inland Sea, where you will tour the Bikan Historical Quarter, known for its centuries-old buildings and lovely local shops. After our visit here we transfer to our hotel in Hiroshima. Overnight in Hiroshima.

Meals: Breakfast

Accommodation: Daiwa Roynet Hotel Hiroshima 3* or Similar

Day 10: Miyajima Island

After breakfast, you will head to visit Miyajima Island by a ferry, an island known for its forests and ancient temples. There's a 'floating' torii, which becomes partially submerged at high tide. It marks the entrance to the Itsukushima Shrine, which was first built in the 12th century. Nearby, the Museum of History and Folklore has cultural artifacts in a 19th-century merchant's home. You will take a walk along Omotesando Shopping Street where you can grab some lunch before returning to Hiroshima by ferry.

In the afternoon, return to Hiroshima, you will pass the Atomic Bomb Dome, otherwise known as the Genbaku Dome, or the Hiroshima Peace Memorial. A shell of a building that was one of very few left standing after the United States bombed Hiroshima in 1945.

Meals: Breakfast

Accommodation: Daiwa Roynet Hotel Hiroshima 3* or Similar

Day 11: Hiroshima - Osaka

This morning, you will check out your hotel and head to the Hiroshima station to get the bullet train to Shin-Osaka Station. On arrival in Osaka, you will spend a full-day coach tour with our guide, beginning at Osaka Castle, which played a major role in the unification of Japan during the Azuchi-Momoyama period in the 16th century. Later, you will tour Kuromon Ichiba, one of the city's main food markets. This spacious covered market features vendors peddling street food, fresh produce, shellfish and trinkets and souvenirs. After a short break for lunch our tour continues to the Minami area in the city's south – a district that's bursting with boutiques, designer outlets, restaurants and bars. We'll also enjoy a walking tour of the Dōtonbori area. One of Osaka's most popular tourist destinations, this street runs parallel to the Dōtonbori canal and is a hugely popular destination for shopping, street food, bars and entertainment. At night the streets here are illuminated by hundreds of colorful neon lights and mechanized signs, including the famous running Glico Man sign and the Kani Doraku crab sign. Check in your hotel again and spend your free time at leisure

Meals: Breakfast

Accommodation: Sheraton Miyako Osaka 4* or Similar

Day 12: Osaka

Today, you are free time at leisure to explore Osaka as you wish and overnight in Osaka.

Meals: Breakfast
