WHERE TO GO

Prefectures are similar to “states” except they don’t have their own governments.

1
Tokyo

An ultra-modern capital, well-known for its world’s highest Tokyo Skytree, the gigantic Tsukiji Fish Market and unique recreational areas.

2
Hakone

A part of Fuji-Hakone-Izu National Park, famous for the scenic Lake Ashi and the Yumoto Onsen hot spring. Also, Hakone is an ideal place for the breath-taking view of Mt.Fuji.

3
Matsumoto

The second largest city of Nagano Prefecture. This place is famed for its Matsumoto Castle, which is one of Japan’s oldest fortresses.

4
Takayama

This is home to the historic village of Shirakawa-go, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. This peaceful small town will bring you back to the early days of Japan with their ancient architectures and customs.

5
Kanazawa

Being the beautiful capital of Ishikawa Prefecture, this city offers an abundance of intact historic treasures and Kenroku-en Garden, one of Japan’s three most beautiful gardens.

6
Kyoto

As the former capital until 1867 and regarded as the soul of Japan with innumerable sacred temples and shrines, Kyoto is proud to own 17 UNESCO World Heritage Sites along with interesting local culture.

7
Nara

The first permanent capital until 784. Nara is home to the many age-old cultural values and the incredible public Nara Park with hundreds of freely roaming deer.

WHAT TO DO

01

Observe cherry blossoms

Cherry blossoms are considered as an iconic image of Japan. Annually, from the middle of March to the end of May, the “Land of Rising Sun” will emerge in the shade of pink. Hanami Festival is celebrated during this time and this is also an occasion for Japanese to party, drink sake and picnic under the cherry blossom trees.

02

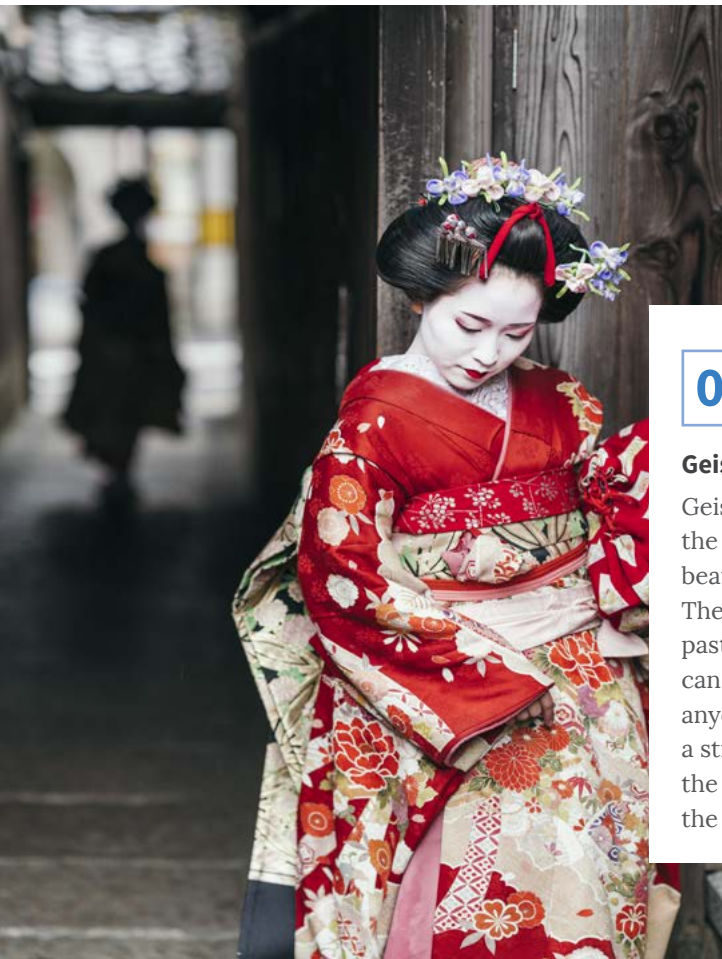

Eat sushi

Making sushi is an art in Japan and the world has to agree. While sushi is widely available throughout the country, the best places to try sushi gather in Tokyo. For high-budget travellers, there are 34 Michelin-star sushi restaurants alone in Tokyo. However, anyone can dive in the Tsukiji Fish Market for affordable yet outstanding tasting sushi!

03

Geisha hunting

Geisha has always been famous, worldwide, as the professional dancer and entertainer, in their beautiful kimono and a distinctive makeup layer. There were tens of thousands of them in the past, but today, there is not much left. While it can cost around US$1,000 per 2 hours of service, anyone can have fun “hunting” down a geisha on a street in Kyoto for a picture. Tips: 5:45 pm on the Hanami lane in Gion district seems to work the best.

04

Stay in Japanese traditional inn

Ryokan is a kind of a traditional Japanese inn from the Edo period, available throughout the country. This accommodation style features tatami floors, futon beds, Japanese styles bath and dedicated local cuisines. While travellers may feel intimidating with the traditional procedures and etiquettes at first, it is still an extremely authentic experience that one can have in their life.

05

Bath in a hot spring

The Japanese natural hot spring, or “Onsen”, will bring you the most relaxing feeling ever. Some popular hot springs are Hakone, Kusatsu, and Kawaguchi Lake (with scenic views of Mt. Fuji).

06

Themed coffee shops

There are such interesting and even “bizarre” places in Tokyo prefecture like the Robot Restaurant in Shinjuku, where robots can dance better than you, or Maid Café in Akihabara, where customers will be served as masters. Indeed, these one-of-a-time experience is priceless.

07

Watch Sumo Wrestling Games

Probably the best way to witness this national sport is at the Grand Sumo Tournament, held 6 times a year. Each tournament starts and ends on a Sunday, and lasts for 15 days. The schedules are as follow, Tokyo in Jan, May and Sep; Osaka in Mar; Nagoya in July; Fukuoka in Nov.

While Japan's health system and medical facilities are high-standard, doctors and nurses in hospitals rarely speak English. However, there are clinics that specialize in taking care of foreigners, with a bit more expensive services. Tap water is safe to drink anywhere in Japan. Food is also hygienically prepared under high-level of control for safety, even for street food. Stay local. Stay right

#1

Do not leave tips, as this is part of Japanese culture. However, if you do want to do so, place the money in an envelope before giving it out.

#2

Bowing is a common way to greet others. The deeper the bow, the more respectful!

#3

Punctuality is gold in Japan. Do not be late.

#4

Place the money, for your payments, on the designated trays or counters. Money should be avoided to be passed from one hand directly to another.

#5

When using chopsticks, do not pass food from chopsticks to chopsticks and do not point them at another person.

#6

Wet towels, provided at certain restaurants, are used to clean your hands, not your faces.

#7

Say “i-ta-da-ki-mas” before eating. It literally means “I will receive”, giving respect to the food.

#8

Do not pour your own drink from a shared bottle, when drinking. You should have someone else do it for you and help them back.

#9

When entering the shrines, wash your hands at the designated spots (if there is).

#10

Keep quiet during public transportation.

A Suica Card is a pre-paid e-money card for moving around and shopping. It may helps.

PERSONAL CONVENIENCE

- Carry plastic bags for garbage disposal. Public trash cans are not common in Japan.
- Bring slip-on shoes. A lot of places will require visitors to take off their shoes.
- Cover up tattoos when entering public pools, saunas, or onsen (hot springs). Since tattoos are associated with criminal gangs (yakuza), visitors may be denied access to certain places.
- No smoking in the streets except in the designated spots.
